

306

306

S WHAT WOULD YOU TAKE FOR ME PAPA?

By
T.P. WESTENDORF.

TORONTO
W.H. HODGINS & CO.
PUBLISHERS

WHAT WOULD YOU TAKE FOR ME, PAPA?

Words and Music by T. P. WESTENDORF.

PIANO. mf

1. Say, what would you take for me, pa-pa? — If
 2. Sometimes when you say I am naughty, — I
 3. I don't think that mamma would miss me, — Be-some-bo-dy want-ed to buy, — And of-fer'd you bright shin-ing dol-lars, — don't think you'd ask ve-ry much, — But then when I hug you and kiss you, — cause I'm so much in her way, — Ex-cept when she want-ed to kiss me —

— And piled them up high as the sky; — You say you are good at a — You call me your trea-sure and such — And so I would just like to
 — At night when we kneel down to pray — But let us just say she is bar- gain, I know you are smart as can be. And so I would ask you To find out my price, don't you see. Now if I was wil- lin' Come tell me as true as can be. If some- bo- dy just like to ask you What would you take for me?

put on the mar- ket What would you take for me?
want- ed to buy me What would you take for me?

What would you take? what would you take? Pa- pa, come tell me what price would I be?

What would you take? what would you take? Pa- pa, now what would you take for me?

